SYSTEMATIC LIFELINE — FULL ASSURANCE OF FAITH

We have nine body systems that have 17 functions: they are known by their distinction, not similarities. These functions are applied to the belief system in this article. You can also embrace these terms as the lifeline to better discern and develop relationships, business, careers, financial freedom or other goals. SKELETAL Structure. Frame your heart to deliver what you desire from the unseen realm. The infrastructure formed will be your living legacy from what you believed to see. Configure the impossible since it's possible. RESPIRATORY Breathe. The power to fully inhale and exhale is the life support of every dream. Life events may take your breath away, but you can breathe again. Resuscitate every shallow breath; launch out into the deep. CIRCULATORY Supply. Streaming faith is at your disposal when needed. That's faith in-stock, not on back order. Your advantage is in reserve so you can contribute to your success. Having the supply to be in demand equips each transaction to not be prematurely terminated. Flow. A steady flow keeps what you believe gracefully advancing toward its target, without becoming choked, congested or clogged. It overrules obstacles by running inference. Your faith will finish its course in spite of the unexpected interception. DIGESTIVE Energize. Stimulated faith sustains vision. Removing apathy, weariness, and/or exhaustion refreshes your power source, so your results won't be limp. An agile response brings you to the right place at the right time. Build. To be approved as a registered landmark, use authentic building materials. Shape what you manufacture with the incorruptible seed, the living and abiding Word of God and the guiding truth and light of the Holy Spirit. Then you will have an incorruptible harvest that won't decay or collapse. Repair. Healing faith restores you for future application. Faith must find a resting place. If dysfunction prevails, unbelief will condemn what you once trusted. Anticipating engagement, daily knit together with God. Wrap yourself in loyal love so the enemy is the only one that's accused. Expel. Conquering faith drives out every enemy that exalts itself against the knowledge of God. Unbelief mixed with faith and left unchecked wavers back and forth until contaminants overthrow the promise. Be avid about making unbelief irreconcilable: fear, doubt, worry, negativism, and any violation against a pure and sure faith. ENDOCRINE Grow. Ever-increasing faith fearlessly commands. It does not shy away from developing storms but instead brings them to a calm. When faith becomes a way of life, favorable results will become more frequently and instantly if a problem arises. When faith is raised up with you as your engaging companion, you will be supernaturally strong to do exploits naturally. Mature. Faith given to its potential operates according to the love principles: it will not cave in or quit until the promise becomes reality. Fully persuaded, it does what others would abort. Seasoned, it will stay the course when all odds are stacked up against you. Given any circumstance, it always thrives. It never falls short of seeing that the end of a thing is better than the beginning. Accelerate. The kingdom of God operates exponentially. Miracles cause you to receive harvest from your seed in record time: years turn into one moment in time; labor turns over favor. The difference is that you work harvest time to the fullest, instead of waiting for it. NERVOUS Regulate. Adaptable faith adjusts to ensure presumption and recklessness are not by-products of what you receive. Faith bends the promise in your direction. It can't be severed unless you break the law by believing and speaking something contrary to the desired destination. If you set your own course, promote your best offer, push your own agenda, the plan of God will be reduced and eventually overthrown in your life. MUSCULAR Move. Corresponding actions always connect you to the end of your faith. You exercise what can be seen to receive what you can't see. Your sobriety test will show you didn't stagger or stumble. Expand. Stretch into a larger territory. Spread out beyond the corner of your world and bring the universe to you. With God as your source, you are bigger on the inside more than you can imagine. Contract. You can go beyond the limits, but anything outside of faith cannot please God. You can own the God-kind of faith to venture outside the box, but never outside of faith. When faith is on trial, the test tries to stymie what is validated as truth. The closer the contractions, the more evidence that the birth can't be breached: God always delivers finished work. REPRODUCTIVE Reproduce. What is done once can be done repeatedly. Your expertise is endorsed by your fruitfulness and capability to multiply results. With qualifying results, you are equipped to help others replicate goals. Faith is not generic; when targeted it clones what the heart images and the mouth carves out. IMMUNE Shield. Preserve your faith from opposing images that hinder your vision. Protect its value because it is a seed God will not reject. Protect it from contaminants. Its wholeness is paramount to thrive, not just survive.

Thought for Transformation

1) Don't abort your seed sown. The promise is already formed. It is not just a seed anymore. 2) Don't bury the birth of your miracle. Your faith can take over and call things that are not as though they were even when you don't see what you hope for with the naked eye. 3) Prepare the womb to deliver the supernatural. Enlarge your heart with the pure Word of God. God only responds to his Word and he will never breach even one breath. Expect resurrection life to schedule an on-time delivery. The promise kicks to let you know every knock is a boost. 4) God will strategically place mid-wives around you to ensure the delivery cannot be intercepted by the enemy. It is out of his reach. No enemy can stop your miracle because it will be too quick. The Word runs swiftly in the earth. It is indeed atomic. Attached with your expectation, it will accelerate. Faith is when the impossible becomes the inevitable.
