"A wicked messenger falleth into mischief: but a faithful ambassador is health." Proverbs 19:17

MODEL ASSIGNMENT IN THE CENTER OF GOD'S WILL

An International Distribution Center (IDC) is not a place where you go, but a position that draws others to you. "And God is able to make all grace (every favor and earthly blessing) come to you in abundance, so that you may always and under all circumstances and whatever the need be self-sufficient [possessing enough to require no aid or support and furnished in abundance for every good work and charitable donation]," II Corinthians 9:8, The Amplified. This is God's perfect model of an ambassador of Christ. You have deliverables to administer and minister the kingdom of God on earth so the quality of life is an exact replica of heaven. Accumulated more than enough in your vessel, you give away anything to anyone, anywhere, at any time. You enlarge your worldview to encompass up to six generations under 120 years—every generation equivalent to 20 years. When you embrace thinking to not only supply your own generation but those that come before and after you, you will have an inter-generational reach. When you study Jesus' earthly ministry and life, you will find his success is compartmentalized because of his compassion, not experience: he was equipped to engage others by always having something for everyone he met along the way. He always improved their quality of life by restoring what was missing, lacking, or broken. Disciplined, he was conditioned to remove drama from life. He had the anchor to transform the elements of any environment. He demonstrated God's purpose, preparation, precision, power, pace, pause, pizzazz, and performance; Through him, God's image and likeness was always on display for the world to envision and value. He did not look for success but was destined to be at the right place at the right time, doing the right thing, right all the time; that's when success gravitated toward him from every angle. The word confirms that you and I can do a greater work since Jesus is now seated at the right hand of the throne of God. We can move from just having disposals to deliverables. Becoming finishers from mere fragments, we can create living memorials from dead works. As an IDC we move from being consumer-oriented to becoming producers, which is one of the cures for any individual or nation's indebtedness. Winston Churchill, "You create your universe as you go along."

AMBASSADOR CUSTOMS OF THE KINGDOM OF GOD

The International Distribution Center always gives God something to work with so what is created bridges heaven with earth. When the demand arises, please know you can always have something to work with. You become an instrument of praise to deliver to your world. Whether you are an assignment to the church, the world, or even a combination of the two, you assume a definite role for every God-defined goal. There are customs of the kingdom of God led by the Holy Spirit. When they are fused together, synergy is created. You will possess process-mapping skills to create your master plan. Isaiah 11th chapter lists nine root: wisdom, understanding, knowledge, counsel, might, reverence (fear of the Lord), righteousness, faithfulness, and glorious. Use the following sentence to help you interpret the 18 customs: "As a your role, root/fruit, becomes goal of synergy." 1) As a framer, destiny becomes realized potential. 2) As a negotiator, diplomacy produces influential negotiations. 3) As a receiver, capacity produces maximum measurement. 4) As a researcher, proficiency produces optimum intelligence. 5) As a filter, integrity produces sovereign values. 6) As a timer, priority produces meticulous sequence. 7) As a maintainer, consistency produces proven trustworthiness. 8) As an enhancer, quality produces outstanding performance. 9) As an achiever, victory produces triumphant advantages. You will also possess public-mapping skills to create masterpieces. Galatians 5th chapter lists an additional nine fruit: love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, and temperance. 10) As a fastener, stability produces unshakable commitment. 11) As a restorer, identity produces holistic empowerment. 12) As an encourager, satisfactory produces inexhaustible resilience. 13) As a persuader, certainty produces unwavering confidence. 14) As an includer, sensitivity produces selfless compassion. 15) As a fueler, spontaneity produces a gracious supplier. 16) As an expander, flexibility produces un-abandoned challenges. 17) As a responder, humility produces immediate compliance. 18) As an authorizer, mastery produces skillful dominion. The re-naming of the above biblical characteristics fortifies opportunities to take Don't Rock the Boat! image development workshop into the corporate world, government, education, rehabilitation institutions as a kingdom of God undercover agent. You are an equipped ambassador for Christ when you add the nine ministry and gifts of Holy Spirit in I Corinthians 12th chapter that are explored in the Noah No One Has Ever Known: Seamless Connection with the Spirit of God.

Thought for Transformation

A dam impounds water, so it is not ready to fully release its flow into the surrounding environment. However, you can make the move from a stagnant dam without being caught in the middle of the transition. How do you take the first step? "...he that watereth shall be watered also himself," Proverbs 11:25. It does not matter how you get your start, it matters more how you finish. You do not have to be where you are, but only start where you are. George Washington Carver quotes, "Start where you are, with what you have, make something of it and never be satisfied." The exchange then is to become a reservoir that stores an extra supply of water for distribution to others. Then you will not be in a dry and parched area and you will begin to produce gurgling living water through the Holy Spirit. You will have the supply to be in demand. Since the flow of water is a vital resource for the quality of life--safeguard, sustain, and supply it as precious. Even its scent can resurrect a dead tree into the planting of the Lord. "For there is hope of a tree, if it be cut down, that it will spout again, and that the tender branch thereof will not cease. Though the root thereof wax old in the earth, and the stock thereof die in the ground: Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant," Job 14:7-9.
