

Voice of Triumph

Volume 9 No. 11

“Let my heart be sound in thy statutes [the end is birthed in me]; that I be not ashamed,” Psalm 119:80

A publication of the

KATHRYN JOY FOSTER

MUSIC MINISTRIES

P.O. BOX 19430

CLEVELAND, OHIO 44119

(216) 486-8615, ext.1, (OFFICE)

(216) 486-2727 (FAX)

kjfm@sbcglobal.net (EMAIL)

HIGHEST HOPES HEDGED TO OUTLAST ENEMY WEAPONS

The sower sows the Word parable from Mark 4:1-20 casts God as the farmer and you as the soil. Let's show God depositing his seed in you: the Word is incorruptible seed. There are four scenarios of the sower, seed and the soil. Each has a different outcome due the level of protection the Word-seed receives. Scenario #1. The Word-seed encounters hard ground. Before the soil grasps the Word satan steals it so God's dream is forgotten. The result, desolation because there is no hedge. The level of your faith as an unbelieving-unbeliever must see it to believe it. Scenario #2. The Word-seed encounters rocky ground. Although satan could not steal the hedged Word, the seeds of God's dream become fragile because persecution causes grief. The result, the distortion of your image to achieve the dream. The level of your faith as an unbelieving-believer causes you to waver back and forth. Being torn between two opinions, double-mindedness causes you to become unstable in all your ways. Scenario #3. The Word-seed encounters thorny ground. Although satan could not steal the hedged Word and you passed the persecution tests, the seeds of God's dream become forged into another dream you were attracted to, instead of staying focused on God's dream. When the cares of the world creep in, your attention is sidetracked. The result, distraction. The level of your faith as a believing-believer makes the dream possible, but when you lose your first love it's put on the back burner. Scenario #4. The Word-seed encounters good ground. Here satan could not steal the hedged Word, the persecution tests were passed, you escaped temptation the world offered, so God's dreams became fixed. The result, God's dream. The level of your faith as a receiving-believer envisions the hope of receiving a full harvest. Be fully persuaded—even against hope you believe in hope. Embrace the manifestation by making tangible space for it. It is no longer impossible, it is just in the unseen realm. Finally, call things that be not as though they were. That's how you designate your hope as a finished work. You have sure joy and peace in believing to abound progressively in hope, knowing you will not be ashamed. As you work on your Garden of Eden, hedge it first: always plead the blood of Jesus over and around every known, unknown, sown, and grown seed and harvest daily.

GOD FILLS UP YOUR HOPE CHEST TO FLOW OVER WITH EVIDENCE

You cannot separate the dream God refueled Abraham with from yours. Christ redeemed you from the curse of the law [believing contrary to the blessing] so that the blessing of Abraham might come on you, Galatians 3rd chapter. Even after Abraham practiced idol worship 75 years, he was called to keep God's commandments. Genesis 12:1-3 flowed, “I will make of thee a great nation, I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing. And I will bless them that bless thee; and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.” When Lot selected the best part of the land, Abram was comforted after the conflict. Genesis 13:14-18 flowed, “...Lift up now thine eyes, and look from the place where thou art northward, and southward, and eastward, and westward: for all the land which thou seest, to thee will I give it, and to thy seed forever. And I will make thy seed as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seed also be numbered. Arise, walk through the land in the length of it in the breadth of it; for I will give it unto thee. God instituted Communion through Melchizedek, the priest of the most high God to establish his covenant. Genesis 14:18-24 flowed. “And he blessed him, and said, Blessed be Abram of the most high God, possessor of heaven and earth: And blessed be the most high God, which hath delivered thine enemies into thy hand. And he gave him tithes of all.” When Abraham was fearful about not having an heir [dream] to succeed him, God give him a covering for any claim. Genesis 15:1 flowed “... Fear not, Abram: I am thy shield; and thy exceeding great reward.” Even when Sarah doubted the dream, God give them a confirmation that developed confidence. Genesis 18:10-19 flowed, “Is anything too hard for the Lord? At the time appointed I will return unto thee, according to the time of life, and Sarah shall have a son.” Even when God challenged Abraham to sacrifice Isaac, he knew he would never be ashamed even after the dream came to pass knowing he was God's trusted friend. Genesis 22:1-18 flowed, “And said, By myself have I sworn, saith the Lord, for because thou hast done this thing; and hast not withheld thy son, thine only son that in blessing I will bless thee, and in multiplying I will multiply thy seed as the stars of the heaven, and as the sand which is upon the sea shore and thy seed shall possess the gate of his enemies.” Never accept hopelessness as your dream. It does not qualify your return on God's investment that flows from heaven's fountain. Grip hope as your anchor. Disappointment is not your finale, even when hope seems deferred. Visit blog.kingsportionlive.com and download God's Fountain of Hope.

Thought for Transformation

When hopefulness drifts away from God's unchanging, undisputable, unwavering anchor, there will always be remains of hopelessness.

Filled Until Hope Overflows

Romans 15:13, Amplified. “May the God of your hope so fill you with all joy and peace in believing [through the experience of your faith] that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound and be overflowing (bubbling over) with hope.” The Greek word for fills means “to cram” clearly illustrating what God deposits in you ensures there is no room for fear, doubt, unbelief or worry. On the other hand, our responsibility is to contain his deposits so hope is always on tap. It is the Word that abides in us that gets the results. Hebrews 6:11-12, The Amplified shows the way. “But we do [strongly and earnestly desire for each of you to show the same diligence and sincerity [all the way through] in realizing and enjoying the full assurance and developing of [your] hope until the end. In order that you may not grow disinterested and become [spiritual] sluggards, but imitators, behaving as do those who through faith (by their leaning of the entire personality on God in Christ in absolute trust and confidence in His power, wisdom, and goodness) and by practice of patient endurance and waiting are [now] inheriting the promises.”