

"If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful. He cannot deny himself" [God cannot act in contradiction to his character and promise. He cannot lie] II Timothy 2:13, KJV/1828 Webster

THE WORD GIVES FULL EXPRESSION OF JUST HOW TANGIBLE GOD REALLY IS

God created everything on earth to image heaven with the presence of his own Word. John 1:1-3, 10-14 documents this as well as, what happens as we welcome the Word to be sown into our heart; our DNA changes. We literally become the authority in the earth as we release that same Word into our atmosphere to continue the restoration process. "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. The same was in the beginning with God. All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not. He came unto his own, and his own received him not. But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: Which were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God. And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth." Make it a daily habit to speak the Word aloud until it speaks back to you. Be diligent to say promises that cover all the areas of your life, even in the face of your own unbelief. "All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works," II Timothy 3:16-17. When the Word appears to be only intangible, it cannot be disproved. It is the same Word that constituted God's vow that he cannot lie. Therefore it ends all arguments. Every case is settled in your favor because the Word is settled in heaven.

THE UNDISPUTABLE WITNESS OF THE HOLY SPIRIT

It was foretold Holy Spirit would inhabit Jesus, not just visit. Scripture documents that he was full of power of the Holy Spirit before being tempted by satan as well as before he began his public ministry. In the synagogue, Jesus testified of his supernatural disposition as he announced Holy Spirit had rested upon him. "The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD,..." Afterward, miracles demonstrated his divine witness. Then Jesus delegated his same authority and power to those recognizing who they really are in Him. John 14:12 promises what we inherit. "Verily, verily, I say unto you, He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father." The anointing gives confidence that you are not acting independently—you are a bona fide carrier of Jesus Christ.

JESUS HAS YOUR ESCAPE PLAN MAPPED OUT IN ADVANCE SO YOU CAN'T FAIL

satan tried to lure Jesus by an identity crisis. Matthew 4:3 "And when the tempter came to him, he said, If thou be the Son of God, command that these stones be made bread." If Jesus reacted to satan as 100% God, instead of 100% man, then his worship would have been perverted over some food. "Even though he was the Son, he learned obedience through his sufferings," Hebrews 5:8, Complete Jewish Bible. Without a shadow of doubt, Jesus knew he was the Son of God, so he demonstrated strength under control although he was hungry. Glory was due Jesus with his submission to live on earth as 100% man. "[Jesus] answered and said, "... It is written, Man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word [rhema] that proceedeth out of the mouth of God," Matthew 4:4. Sinless, Jesus outlasted temptation. He outclassed satan and remains ready to bring you relief. "For in that he himself hath suffered being tempted, he is able to succor them that are tempted." Hebrews 2:18. His escape plan is there before you need it; it's never delayed. "Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth take heed lest he fall. There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it," I Cor. 10:12-13.

Thought for Transformation

God's gentleness makes us great, but our meekness will keep us there. We must remain open to receive so great an inheritance, so we won't reject the Lord's unquestionable goodness. "He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?" Romans 8:32.

Overcomers by Jesus' Blood

"We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair; Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed; Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body." II Cor. 4:8-10. To bear the mark of Jesus Christ is to decree and declare the incorruptible blood over your life daily, knowing that no weapon formed against you shall prosper. That's binding!

Oh Death, Where is your Sting?

Nehemiah was a cupbearer for the king, one who would drink before the king did to ensure royalty could not be poisoned. He acted similar to a bodyguard one who is prepared to take the hit instead of the one he is to protect. Jesus is our Cupbearer. The Prince of Peace has a limitless arsenal that guarantees perfect protection personally.
