Volume 10 No. 5

“For we are laborers together with God.” [one plants, another waters, but God gives the increase],” 1 Corinthians 3:9

NOT TAKING ANYTHING FROM YOU, GETTING SOMETHING TO YOU

There is a correlation between the woman with the alabaster box and what is known as one of the main tithe references. Malachi 3:10-12 is representative of what takes place when you bring your tithes and offerings into the storehouse. “Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it. And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast her fruit before the time in the field, saith the Lord of hosts. And all nations shall call you blessed: for ye shall be a delightful land, saith the Lord of hosts.” The woman with the alabaster box brought her gift to Jesus which is always considered the heavenly storehouse, where you lay up treasure so thieves can’t steal and moths cannot destroy. Her seed-gift was safe therefore the return on her investment was also safe because it was backed by the heavenly Father’s Depository Insurance Corporation (FDIC). The Lord of hosts is equivalent to the Lord of Sabaoth meaning God will put on his armor and go to war on those who withhold treasure from his purpose, in this text, the woman with the alabaster box. Hosts illustrates angels on assignment to deliver messages, to defend heavenly assets, and to divest all kingdom of God investments under the influence of the kingdom of this world. At the time the woman deposited her seed, Jesus silenced the attempted seed-eaters. His blessing on her proved he was not trying to take anything from her but trying to get something to her. This repositioned her so that everywhere his story is told, so is hers. Jesus re-zoned her land as valuable, acceptable and desirable and with purpose when he said her seed was “a beautiful thing,” therefore she had no crop failure, no crop miscarriage, nor crop abortion. He made her future so great because she was forgiven, that she could do away with her past because it was forgotten.

A PREPARED TABLE IN THE PRESENCE OF YOUR ENEMIES

Destiny is all about maneuverability so don’t walk in the counsel of the ungodly, nor stand in the way of sinners or sit in the seat of scorners. Be on reserve for the King’s pleasure. Delight in God’s Word as it is his presence; don’t separate him from it. Then your worship will become a different sacrifice. That’s what the woman with the alabaster box did. She did not identify with Judas, the “thief” or Simon, the “moth”, but bypassed them both to pursue Jesus alone. She did not allow Judas to change what she purposed to do nor Simon to change who she purposed to be. During worship, she remained speechless, but her gift communicated to Jesus’ need. Her listening conveyed she was open to hear from heaven so she reserved silence as a seed to move heaven on her behalf. As she worshipped Jesus, she discovered the plan he designed for her beyond her lifetime. Her silence spoke volumes to him because it gave him the right of way to fully express his dream for her to her. What he imparted into her life transported her thoughts and ways to his thoughts and ways. Her silence made an appeal to Jesus in whom she had come to fully trust. Jesus silenced the adversarial voices around her so she would remain in quietness and in assurance as she freely gave; then confidently she received her divine upgrade. Jesus prepared a spread for her in the presence of her enemies.

IF YOU TRY TO DO SOMEONE ELSE’S PART, ONE OF YOU IS NOT NEEDED

When you work, always collaborate with God. Be certain that whatever you do, it has already been prearranged to work in harmony with God’s purpose and plan. If you do what someone else is suppose to do, then you duplicate a piece of the puzzle that is unneeded. What you have might seem insignificant, but when placed in God’s hand it becomes valuable in the Master’s plan. I John 5:8 declares there are three witnesses in the earth: the baptism; the Holy Spirit; and the blood of Jesus. The woman with the alabaster box had the missing piece to help fulfill Jesus’ ministry in the earth; she co-labored in Jesus’ burial. Her story foretold the three witnesses in the earth; one author calls a witness, a proof-producer. She participated in God’s undercover plan to encourage Jesus to complete his earthly assignment. 1. Jesus’ baptism was recounted by the shedding of her tears that washed his feet. 2. The Holy Spirit’s earthly assignment was recalled when her perfume’s fragrance filled the room. 3. However, Jesus’ blood still had to be counted for to remit our sin. Her gift signified to Jesus that two of the three proof-producers are present. Don’t give up on the work in progress. There is life in your blood. God’s message resounded through her, “...without the shedding of blood, there will be no forgiveness of sins,” Hebrew 9:22, The Living Bible. Her assignment helped Jesus to finish his.

Thought for Transformation

If you are full of yourself, wrong or even “good” natural things, but not “God” things, you cannot be filled with the fullness of God. In that state, you will not be able to embrace what God is doing. First empty out of any influence that separates you from God. The Holy Spirit will then usher you into all truth as you hunger and thirst after righteousness, which allows the flow of non-carnal currents in your relationship. That is, you are not too heavenly that you are no earthly good, but you are living with heaven’s perspective on earth for all things. That dimension gives you a supernatural disposition.

Birthing Manifestations

God needs plenty of room to work. The Word, as the incorruptible seed, enlarges your heart. If God can get a seed into it, he can also get a harvest to it. Every Word that proceeds out of the mouth of God is imported into the earth so you can have the days of heaven on earth. Separating God from his Word always creates confusion.

Evidence Standing Sure

When Jesus was sought out to be killed, a plot surfaced to kill Lazarus as well (the man Jesus raised from the dead). Say aloud, “satan, you cannot get rid of God’s evidence. Even if God has to raise it from the dead, it will override every enemy contradiction. God always rebukes the devourer for my sake.”
