“For no promise from God will be impossible of fulfillment.” Luke 1:37, Weymouth Bible

CHOOSE GOD’S CHOICE OVER CHANCE

You will always prefer taking a chance over choice with confusion present; it causes you to waver back and forth with seemingly no real resolve so you take a chance just to still the ripples. The renowned Christmas story can move you progressively from a state of confusion so clarity can rule and you see the current of God’s direction. Confusion (Luke 1:26-29) Mary was presented with God’s plan; he desires to birth solutions in you as well. Like Mary, that offspring will bring about solutions for prevailing problems. Because the solution is according to the miraculous power that works in you, making room for the exceedingly, abundantly, above all that you can ask or think may create chaos at first—major or minor—nonetheless still chaos until you wrap your faith around your chosen destiny. Clarity: (Luke 1:30-37) Mary sought the light of the prophetic message. She was determined to move from the opaque of darkness that raised question after question to discover God’s plan of salvation for all; in God’s light she saw light as she anticipated direction from the Lord and remained open to heaven-born possibilities knowing that great things do happen outside the system. Consent: (Luke 1:38) When Mary gave up her right to take a chance on her future or to even make her own choices—no matter how good they may tend to be—her life drastically changed. Her endorsement of God’s thoughts and ways took her to the highest possible position; a place of obedience that showed her willingness not to refuse the best option. Although it definitely looked like sudden collapse, she agreed she would become the carrier of God’s plan. Confirmation: (Luke 1:39-44) The announcement of Mary’s barren cousin’s pregnancy—who was too old to bear an offspring—made her an eyewitness that miracles from heaven could be birthed in the earth. That confirmation was enough for Mary not to abort God’s plan until delivered. Completion. (Luke 1:45) What brought closure to Mary carrying the offspring full term was God’s love. It was that expression that cast away every tormenting fear that could have tempted her to renege on her original consent, “yes to God”. Confession (Luke 1:46-55) Mary’s prophetic voice kept calling those things that be not as though they were. She aligned her words with God’s, “no impossibility of fulfillment”. Her decreed her offspring, which reproduced the light that showed the path ahead through the word of God; it did not come back void but accomplished God’s will. Congee (Luke 1:56) Mary solidified the plan by remaining in a place where miracles thrived; moving away from unbelief, confusion had no place.

COUNTERPRODUCTIVE IMAGES INFLUENCE VISION AND EXPECTATION

Always allow God access to reproduce his vision in you. Your heart is the birthing place because it is the part of you that helps to “believe to see the goodness of the Lord in the land of the living”. The sperm of God’s word gives life to the seed. When seeds are fertilized, they know what to do. They birth what is in God’s heart, his offspring, ultimately replacing all counterproductive images. Isaiah 49:19-23, The Message gives God’s vision for repossessing your dominion in the earth to make it easier to build a legacy. “And your ruined land? Your devastated, decimated land? Filled with more people than you know what to do with! And your barbarian enemies, a fading memory. The children born in your exile will be saying, ‘It’s getting too crowded here. I need more room.’ and you’ll say to yourself, where on earth did these children come from? I lost everything, had nothing, was exiled and penniless. So who reared these children? How did these children get here? The Master, God says, Look! I signal to the nations, I raise my flag to summon the people. Here they’ll come: women carrying your little boys in their arms, men carrying your little girls on their shoulders. Kings will be your babysitters, princesses will be your nursemaids. They’ll offer to do all your drudge work—scrub your floor, do your laundry. You’ll know then that I am God. No one who hopes in me ever regrets it.” There is enlargement in the waiting when you look well and expect well.

WHERE THE POSSIBILITIES ARE

Take Courage to face any impossibility knowing your heart has the capacity to deliver miracles from God: Psalm 31:24, “Be of good courage, and he will strengthen your heart, all ye that hope in the Lord.” Take Cover to ensure the enemy’s possibilities are always denied. Ephesians 6:14, “Gird your loins [reproductive area] with truth.” Take Comfort in knowing God never misses an opportunity to love on you. Psalm 23:4, “...for thy rod and thy staff they comfort me.” The rod is a symbol of defense against enemy forces. The staff guides you along the path; no matter how rough it may seem, you will keep moving. God never mistakes his staff as a rod to beat you. He knows the difference.

Thought for Transformation

satan doesn’t stand a chance when you 1.) Perceive the treasure in heaven God desires to release in the earth through you. Harvest depends on who sows the incorruptible seed. Deut. 28:12-14, “... the Lord will open his good treasure—the heaven to give the rain in your land in God’s season to bless all the work of your hand. 2.) Pressure every enemy thought or imagination that attempts to exalt itself against God’s knowledge. II Cor. 10:4-6. The non-carnal weapons of our warfare are mighty enough to pull down every stronghold bringing them into captivity, without an opportunity for parole. Stand ready to take revenge on all disobedience until they are all obedient to the anointing, removed or destroyed. 3.) Participate in the exceedingly, abundantly, above all you can ask or think. Ephesians 3:17-21 says the miraculous working power of God in you ushers in heaven’s best. There are no limits when you stop working from an earthly perspective and begin seeing yourself birthing the mysteries of God. Imagine that!

Desire for Baby on Board

Small beginnings? Want to be enlarged? Make way for offspring: Say aloud, “God I speak a baby in my womb, perfect, whole, delivered in a year. Oil the birth canal with Holy Spirit’s oil, so the baby will slide out within 3 hours. Thank you Jesus!”
