“Don’t hold back—give freely, and you’ll have plenty poured back into your lap—a good measure, pressed down, shaken together, brimming over. You’ll receive in the same measure you give.” Luke 6:38, The Voice

KINGDOM OF GOD EDICTS ALWAYS HAVE THE LAST WORD

Let me remind you of when Jesus commanded the fig tree to die after it defied His decree from the kingdom of God; it’s the truth He “answered” the fig tree’s noncompliance to respond to His need for nourishment. Although it didn’t seem like anything happened at all, it withered up underground from its roots. Less than 24 hours, it was dead. The first part of that account is in Mark 11:13-14, AMPC, “And seeing in the distance a fig tree [covered] with leaves, He went to see if He could find any [fruit] on it [for in the fig tree the fruit appears at the same time as the leaves]. But when He came up to it, He found nothing but leaves, for the fig season had not yet come. And He said to it, No one ever again shall eat fruit from you. And His disciples were listening [to what He said].” Your environment’s impossibility is to respond to you without hesitation. Don’t ever let it talk back to you.

GOD’S GRACE RAISES THE BARRIER UNTIL THE PROBLEM PASSES AWAY

“In the morning, when they were passing along, they noticed that the fig tree was withered [completely] away to its roots. And Peter remembered and said to Him, Master, look! The fig tree which You doomed has withered away! And Jesus, replying, said to them, Have faith in God [constantly]. Truly I tell you, whoever says to this mountain, Be lifted up and thrown into the sea! and does not doubt at all in his heart but believes that what he says will take place, it will be done for him. For this reason I am telling you, whatever you ask for in prayer, believe (trust and be confident) that it is granted to you, and you will [get it],” Mark 11:20-24, AMPC. I am reminded of Zechariah 4:7, “Who art thou O great mountain? before Zerubbabab thou shalt become a plain...” God’s grace applied moves even literal mountains out of the way. Verse 6 declares, “...not by might, nor by power, but by My Spirit says the Lord of hosts.” In other words, it is not your labor, but with God’s favor you for petition clearance to move forward unhindered. Your part is to remain in complete agreement with God: saying what He says to say and obeying what He says to do. That is how you receive heaven-born possibilities when you surrender every impossibility. Let grace do the work!

GOD’S OPENED HAND REMOVES WAITING FROM EXPECTATION

The Order Confirmation: “I am writing all of this to you who have entrusted your lives to the Son of God—so you will realize eternal life already is yours. We live in the bold confidence that God hears our voices when we ask for things that fit His plan. And if we have no doubt that He hears our voices, we can be assured that He moves in response to our call,” I John 5:14-15, The Voice. The Delivery Confirmation: “All eyes have turned toward You, waiting in expectation; when they are hungry, You feed them right on time. The desires of every living thing. are met by Your open hand,” Psalm 145:15-16, The Voice.

INTIMACY WITH GOD GRANTS FULL DOMINION TO THE KING OF KINGS

“Since the king has the power to enforce His word, who dares ask him, ‘What are you doing?’ Whoever does what the king commands will stay out of trouble, and the wise heart will figure out the proper time and proper way to proceed,” Ecclesiastes 8:4-5, The Voice references the sovereignty of royalty generally; however, Micah 4:9 qualifies Jesus as the King of kings and the kingdom of God that resides in you. “...Don’t you have a king in your midst?” The issue remains, What are you doing with what you already possess? You have the faith of God: His measure in you is 100%; not a portion of 100%. Jesus’ intimacy with Father God showed His heart and mouth resonated only honor to God through His humility to serve Him. Jesus, the Word of God, the seed that lives and abides forever possessed Holy Spirit without measure; He demonstrated authority and power that routed out every alien—anything that did not have a passport within the kingdom of God. With Jesus reigning in your heart, embrace your standing audience before the King. “Those who love a pure heart and speak with grace will find that the king is their friend,” Proverbs 22:11, The Voice.

Thought for Transformation

To receive by faith is your mouth—as the informant of your heart—in accordance with God’s good, acceptable, and perfect will. Let’s use Isaiah 58:8, AMPC is our example. God’s Promise to you: “Then shall your light break forth like the morning, and your healing (your restoration and the power of a new life) shall spring forth speedily; your righteousness (your rightness, your justice, and your right relationship with God) shall go before you [conducting you to peace and prosperity], and the glory of the Lord shall be your rear guard.” The following change of possession carves out how you speak to show your reality of receiving God’s promised manifestation. In other words, Your Receipt to God. “...My light has broken forth like the morning, and my healing (my restoration and the power of a new life) has sprung forth speedily; my righteousness (my rightness, my justice, and my right relationship with God) has gone before me [conducting me to peace and prosperity], and the glory of the Lord is my rear guard.” Your promise is always futuristic until your return receipt acknowledges that the transaction took place in the past, has present existence and future continuity.

THE GREATER THE VISION, THE GREATER THE CAPACITY TO RECEIVE. TAKE THE LIMITS OF RECEIVING!
