Voice of Triumph

“Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.”

Luke 6:38, KJV

BIRTHING ALL-ENCOMPASSING PRAISE THAT CELEBRATES GOD

Praise is instinctive. [Leah] conceived yet again, had a son and said, “This time I will praise ADONAI,” therefore she named him Y’hudah [praise],” Gen. 29:35 (CJB). Praise reproduces kings. “Judah, thou art he whom thy brethren shall praise: thy hand shall be in the neck of thine enemies; thy father's children shall bow down before thee. Judah is a lion's whelp: from the prey, my son, thou art gone up: he stooped down, he couched as a lion, and as an old lion; who shall rouse him up? The sceptre shall not depart from Judah, nor a lawgiver from between his feet, until Shiloh come; and unto him shall the gathering of the people be. Binding his foal unto the vine, and his ass's colt unto the choice vine; he washed his garments in wine, and his clothes in the blood of grapes: His eyes shall be red with wine, and his teeth white with milk,” Gen. 49:8-12 (KJV). Praise secures God’s help. “And this is the blessing of Judah: and he said, Hear, Lord, the voice of Judah, and bring him unto his people: let his hands be sufficient for him; and be Thou an help to him from his enemies,” Deut. 33:7 (KJV). Praise crowns God as King. “But you are Holy, enthroned on the praises of Israel. Our fathers trusted in you; they trusted, and you rescued them,” Ps. 22:3 (CSB). Praise occupies an unfair advantage in battle. “Praise the Eternal! Write new songs; sing them to Him with all your might! Gather with His faithful followers in joyful praise; Let all of Israel celebrate their Maker, their God, their friend; let the children of Zion find great joy in their true King. So let the music begin; praise His name—dance and sing to the rhythm of the tambourine, and to the tune of the harp. For the Eternal is listening, and nothing pleases Him more than His people; He raises up the poor and endows them with His salvation. Let His faithful followers erupt in praise, singing triumphantly wherever they are, even as they lie down for sleep in the evening. With the name of God and praise in their mouths, with a two-edged sword in their hands, Let them take revenge on all nations who deny God. Let them punish the peoples. Kings and nobles will be locked up and their freedom will be bound in iron shackles. This judgment against them, decreed by a holy God, will be carried out. It’s an honor for all His faithful followers to serve Him. Praise the Eternal!” Ps. 149 (VOICE). Praise remains undetected in the voice of the unexpected. “With praises from children and from tiny infants, you have built a fortress. It makes your enemies silent, and all who turn against you are left speechless,” Ps. 8:2 (CEV). Praise conquers all enemies. “A household full of children will not bring shame on your name but victory when you face your enemies, for your offspring will have influence and honor to prevail on your behalf!” Ps. 127:3-5 (TPT).

MAXIMIZE PRAISE THAT NEVER ENDS: NEVER TAKE BREAKS

You may own and even occupy what you have, but you only reproduce who you really are. All five of Judah’s sons were birthed out of “Praise.” Instead of Er and Onan dying prematurely and Shelah being withheld, they could have all erupt in praise. Any misalignment in Judah reflected in his offspring in one way or another. His firstborn Er’s name means “awake.” Instead of being slain by the Lord because of his wickedness, Er could have stirred the heart of God. Judah’s second-born Onan’s name means “strong.” Instead of being slain by the Lord for refusing to impregnate Tamar, Onan could have reinforced God’s residence and reign. Judah’s third-born Shelah name means “petition.” Instead of being withheld from Tamar because Judah feared the death of his son, Shelah could have offered the sacrifice of praise to God ensuring His favor in the face of any opposition. Judah’s last two sons born to Tamar were twins. Her first-born, Perez’s name means “breach.” Out of her womb ushered in Jesus Christ, the Breaker to reign as King of kings who activated the power of Holy Spirit to split the heaven wide open to access heaven on earth. Now, we are more than conquerors through Him. His twin brother Zerah’s name means “rising.” He was empowered to cause us to step up individually and collectively as the Body of Christ, advancing us into the high place with high praise. Micah 2:13 (AMPC) clearly demonstrates how Jesus is enthroned in our praise. “The Breaker [the Messiah] will go up before them. They will break through, pass in through the gate and go out through it, and their King will pass on before them, the Lord at their head.” Awake strong petition to breakthrough impossibilities for the rising of the Son!

HEAVEN BORN POSSIBILITY THROUGH MARY’S WOMB INTO THE WORLD

The transliteration for “measured” in Luke 6:38 is Antimetró. It moves you from just waiting for something to happen to actively resisting opposing forces. In Luke 1:46-57 (KJV) “And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord, And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Saviour. For He hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for, behold, from henceforth all generations shall call me blessed. For He that is mighty hath done to me great things; and Holy is His name. And His mercy is on them that fear Him from generation to generation. He hath shewed strength with His arm; He hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts. He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree. He hath filled the hungry with good things; and the rich He hath sent empty away. He hath helped His servant Israel, in remembrance of His mercy; As He spake to our fathers, to Abraham, and to His seed forever. And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house. Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.” Mary’s praise to God triumphed over lethal opposition to deliver Jesus to the whole world.

Thought for Transformation

In August I had an open vision that showed the lower case alphabets m, e, w, and the number 3 revolving continuously. All the shapes were identical but as they turned clockwise each letter or figure could be distinctly identified. I realized it was time to release anti-measure. It all depends on how you look at things. Let God’s much-too-much kingdom perception be the reality you embrace.

Praise is Your Stronghold

Could offering praise to God be the missing link to your fully receiving from Him? When God articulated His blessing over you is the same time He also activated the blessing for you. There is no delay. Learn to believe the revelation so you fully receive the manifestation. That too can be simultaneously, with no waiting time. Deuteronomy 28th chapter lists the blessings and the curses. Although the blessing out-classes the curse in every way, the amount of curses more than double the number of blessings. The determining factor is found in Deuteronomy 28:47 (GNT) “The LORD blessed you in every way, but you would not serve Him with glad and joyful hearts.” This scripture shows the lack or loss of praise is the reason for the failure. God has already given you His good, acceptable, and perfect will so you can experience perfect soundness in every area. Now turn on and turn up your praise of God at all times. Drown out all competing noises. Psalm 34:1-3 (KJV) “I will bless the LORD at all times: His praise shall continually be in my mouth. My soul shall make her boast in the LORD: the humble shall hear thereof, and be glad. O magnify the LORD with me, and let us exalt His name together.” Remove all complaining from your streets. Let praise govern!
