A merry heart triumphs over misery. "...thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away," Job 11:16.

Several years ago, at the head of the street, a hydrant was running nonstop. Later that day, the sewer water overflowed into the middle of the street. The sewer obstructed the water's breakthrough, impeding mobility. Whenever someone is full of misery, the measure of merry is also restrained. Whatever is clogging the heart must first be removed. Only then can the merry heart live stable, sustainable, and scalable in Christ alone.

"The king's heart is in the hand of the Lord, as the rivers of water: He turneth it whithersoever He will," Prov. 21:1. That is Jesus' your Great Physician supernatural cardiac catheterization procedure. All contamination is removed from the heart so it is unimpaired. That is how your merry heart adorns the iridescent glow just like Jesus, full of God's glory, never the gory of the world, the flesh, or the devil. Keep looking in Christ's mirror until you model the masterpiece God has made you to be in this world. That is the very, very merry heart from the inside, out.

One biblical footnote reveals Adam and Eve never felt any misery before they sinned. Through Jesus, the second Adam, our God vowed this promise to you. "When you pass through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee..." Isaiah 43:2. The backup has been severed forever. It is impossible for it to return. Jesus decrees, "I am going to flush them out!" Agree and say aloud, "In the name of Jesus, the source of this backup is flushed out right now!" Thank you, Jesus!
