Voice of Triumph

"We have become His poetry, a re-created people that will fulfill the destiny He has given each of us, for we are joined to Jesus, the Anointed One. Even before we were born, God planned in advance our destiny and the good works we would do to fulfill it!" Ephesians 2:10 (TPT)

REBEKAH FROM ABRAHAM'S RELATIVES MARRIED ISAAC, HIS SON

Rebekah was the chosen wife for Isaac. As the name Rebekah is defined, her captivating beauty within was so arresting that it even overflowed on the outside. Unbeknownst to Rebekah that God had chosen her to become Isaac's wife she demonstrated she had the supply to meet the demand indeed. It was Rebekah's labor of faith that proved her faith was alive and active. After that, she received the favor of God for the rest of her life. Rebekah attended to Abraham's servant by meeting the desires of his heart. Waiting at the well, he wanted the one God hand-picked to offer him some water to drink. But she also surpassed his expectation. She offered to give drink to all ten camels as well. Just one camel can drink 20-30 gallons of water in just one sitting as well as drink 53 gallons of water within 3 minutes. Do the calculation if you would like to, but that was the exceeding abundantly above all that anyone could imagine. In Rom 9:10, Rebekah is named in the lineage of Jesus. You too are in Jesus' bloodline as a member of the Body of Christ, i.e., the Bride of Christ!

JERICO WAS AN ENEMY OF ISRAEL, BUT RAHAB MARRIED INTO IT

Rahab was the chosen wife for Salmon. As Rahab's name is defined, she showcased that she was large and broad. She was willing to make room in any direction to meet the impending demand as a Jericho prostitute. But she laid that trade aside for her life to be preserved. Rahab's faith in God was so unshakable and unbreakable she gave Israel's undercover agents who Joshua sent to spy Jericho the unfair advantage. She also made a pledge with Israel for the safety of her and her family at the time God conquered Jericho. It was Rahab's labor of faith that proved her faith was alive and active. After that, she received the favor of God for the rest of her life. Rahab assumed the role of Israel's undercover agent. She became the Global Positioning System for the spies to escape Jericho, ensuring their safety out of the city. When questioned about them by the king of Jericho, she never revealed their whereabouts to him. Although a non-Jew, Rahab's trust in their God enlarged her own territory. Rahab's faith is even recorded in Hebrews 11th chapter alongside the other heroes of faith. "By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they were compassed about seven days. By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had received the spies with peace," Hebrews 11:30-31 (KJV). In Matthew 2:5, Rahab is named in the lineage of Jesus. Rahab is Boaz's mother.

MOABITES BANNED FROM ISRAEL'S FAMILY, BUT RUTH MARRIED INTO IT

Ruth was the chosen wife for Boaz. Ruth's name is defined as friendship. Ruth demonstrated Proverbs 18:24; "...there is a friend that sticketh closer than a brother." By way of a binding covenant, Ruth displayed an unwavering commitment to Naomi. Ruth's bond with Naomi was to never leave her physically nor forsake her emotionally. Ruth the wife of one of Naomi's deceased sons was a Moabite, known for incest. Although she was banned from Israel's family, God hand-picked Ruth to be in His lineage. Ruth's undying faith proposed not to only live in the same household with her mother-in-law, but Naomi's God would be her God also. It was Ruth's labor of faith that proved her faith was alive and active. After that, she received the favor of God for the rest of her life. Ruth sealed herself to Naomi in five diverse ways. 1) Ruth vowed to go wherever Naomi would go. 2) Ruth vowed to live wherever Naomi lived. 3) Ruth vowed Naomi's people to be her people. 4) Ruth vowed that Naomi's God would also be her God. 5) Ruth vowed that wherever Naomi died and was buried, that would also be her final resting place too. Ending her covenant, she pledged to God that nothing would separate them but death. In Matthew 2:5, Ruth is named in the lineage of Jesus. Ruth is the great grandmother of David.

ALWAYS ALIGN TO GOD'S DESIGNED DESTINY, NEVER DESPISE IT

Isaac and Rebekah married, but she was barren. Isaac entreated God so she became pregnant with twins, Esau and Jacob. The two boys started wrestling in her womb. She inquired of the Lord about the turmoil. God replied: "two nations are inside; one would be stronger than the other and the elder would rule serve the younger" in Genesis 25:23. Esau, the firstborn was skillful became Isaac's favorite and he planned to bless him with the right of the firstborn and the double portion of the inheritance. On the other hand, Jacob was peaceful became Rebekah's favorite. After Rebekah downloaded Jacob's divine destiny, she partnered with God to bring it into fruition. Jacob bought Esau's birthright for some bread and lentils without a fight. Alongside Esau's vow, Rebekah schooled Jacob so Isaac would bless him indeed, instead of Esau. Jacob means "watch from behind." Esau nicknamed him supplanter. The Bible says: God loved Jacob who honored the birthright; He hated Esau for despising it.

Thought for Transformation

All three women in the Bible—Rebekah, Rahab, and Ruth—were in the perfect place to be discovered. Each one was there for different reasons, but their faith proved they were ready as God's chosen vessels. They served His purpose, plan, and path as an integral part of the lineage of Jesus Christ. It was the place God prearranged for them to meet their spouses, giving them an entry into Abraham, our forefather's family by marriage. The uncommon connection between the three is the first initial of their names. You see the letter "R" in Hebrew refers to the lintel and the doorpost. The lintel is horizontal that bridges and blends their relationship with mankind. While the doorpost is vertical bridging and blending their relationship with God. Each postured themselves to serve as the gateway for God to fill in the gap. They supplied the demand for God to birth Jesus into the earth.

The Greatest Assessment

Destiny's origination and destination never stops. Our labor of faith can prove alive and active too. Live acclimated to activate your place in God's dream. Live aligned to God's divine design and receive His favor for all of your life. Educational grading systems use poor, fair, good, very good, and excellent. Excellent is not the best students could do either. Perfection is the best that can be done. Jesus Christ resides in that class. Live through Him. God's presence and power and Holy Spirit within grant the mind of Christ, the very intellect of Jesus. Live like you were designed!
